My Brothers and Sisters:

I write this to give you an update on the Parish Pastoral Council. As happens every year, we had 3 members of the Council whose term was ending. After over two months of looking and inviting, we were able to get 3 members of the parish to run for the Council. Since there were only 3, I have appointed them.

I welcome our appointed members: Stephen Smith, who is now officially in his second term; Michael Smith for his first term; and Sarah Pritts for her first term.

I thank those who have finished their terms and all the service they have provided: George Douglass and Carla Gerton. I also thank Laura Aguirre, who is finishing up 3 years for a special representative appointment I gave her on the Council.

The Council has been working over the past several months on a few 3-5 year goals for strategic planning. We are now honing the working of objectives for this year. I look forward to the fruits of this time to be communicated soon.

We also have another good-bye and welcome coming up. Jim Mann, our business manager, recently stepped down from his position. Jim has been continuing to help us as the search for a new business manager has moved forward. Our new Business and Facilities Manager is Melvin King, who will be joining us in a few weeks. A big thanks goes out to Jim, who has served us so well, and Mel, who has accepted the position.
